

HOWARD ZINN'S MARX IN SOHO

In this one-man show Howard Zinn humanizes the man behind the ideas. In funny and intimate narrative we learn not only that Marx (played by Jerry Levy) is not dead, but rather his critique of capitalism is more than relevant today.

PETALUMA (2 Nights!)

Tuesday, January 12 • 7 PM

Wednesday, January 13 • 7 PM

Aqus Cafe, 189 H Street

SAN RAFAEL

Friday, January 15 • 7 PM

First United Methodist Church

9 Ross Valley Dr (at 4th St)

BERKELEY

Saturday, January 16 • 7 PM

Berkeley Fellowship of

Unitarian Universalists

1924 Cedar St (at Bonita)

$15-25 Sliding Scale

No reserved seating

Wheelchair accessible

Please be prompt!

Sponsored by The Task Force on the Americas

Endorsed by
Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists
Marin Peace & Justice Coalition
Petaluma Progressives

Info:

415/924-3227, mitf@igc.org,

www.mitfamericas.org,

www.levyarts.com